

National Membership Benefits

When you join PRSA, membership quickly pays for itself. You'll immediately gain access to a whole host of resources designed to help advance your professional success.

- Continuing Education
 - PRSA offers more than 50 FREE webinars per year.
- Discounts
 - Lower your professional and personal expenses with preferred rates on local and national PRSA conferences and events, insurance, technology, shipping, car rental, financial planning and more.
- Publications and Research
 - Find public relations news, research and case studies for the insight you need now. Start your morning with the daily Issues & Trends sent right to your inbox. Later, read the latest in Public Relations Tactics, The Public Relations Strategist or Silver Anvil Award-winning case studies.
- PRSA Job Center
 - Search more than 2,000 public relations and communications job postings.

PRSA Pittsburgh Chapter Benefits

The PRSA Pittsburgh Chapter represents more than 200 public relations and communications professionals in the Pittsburgh area. As a member, you'll have the opportunity to:

- Become a visibly engaged participant in your local public relations community.
- Network with colleagues and contacts as well as a variety of potential employees, agencies, funders, consultants and clients.
- Attend local seminars, meetings, receptions and programs for a discounted rate.
- Earn personal or company recognition through industry awards.
- Get involved with PRSA Pittsburgh's service project.

Membership Dues

Chapter dues are a standard annual fee of $45. National dues vary based on experience level. Please visit www.prsa-pgh.org for more information. PRSA also provides frequent discounts throughout the year, so be sure to check our website and connect with us on Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn for updates on the latest offers.

Questions

If you have questions or would like to discuss membership with a local coordinator, please contact membership@prsa-pgh.org.